

Privacy Statement

SoftArea has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our company commitment to privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for these websites: <http://softarea.com/>, <http://softarea.net/>, from all devices and all websites developed by SoftArea and published in the internet. Using our Website and reading this Policy, you confirm, that we can gather and analyze your personal data, if you are not agreeing, please, leave our site and do not use it. This Privacy Statement has been changing from time to time. Last update version was made on the 25th of May, 2018.

Collection of Personal Information from Service Visitors.

SoftArea may collect and/or track and/or analyze the next information:

- 1) the home server domain names, IP addresses, type of client computer, files downloaded, search engine used, operating system, and type of web browser of visitors to SoftArea web service,
- 2) the email addresses of visitors that communicate with SoftArea via email,
- 3) information knowingly provided by the visitor in online forms, registration forms, surveys, email, contest entries, and other online avenues (including demographic and personal profile data),
- 4) aggregate and user-specific information on which pages visitors access.

SoftArea may place internet "cookies" on visitors' hard drives. Internet cookies save data about individual visitors, such as the organization's name, password, user-name, screen preferences, and the pages of a service viewed by the visitor. When the visitor revisits SoftArea web service, SoftArea may recognize the visitor by the Internet cookie and customize the visitor's experience accordingly. Visitors may decline Internet cookies, if any, by using the appropriate feature of their web client software, if available.

Use of Personal Data Collected.

Personal data collected by SoftArea may be used by SoftArea for:

- ✓ editorial and feedback purposes,
- ✓ marketing and promotional purposes,
- ✓ respond to customer inquiries and for other service purposes,
- ✓ statistical analysis of users' behavior,
- ✓ product development,
- ✓ content improvement,
- ✓ customize the content and layout of the service.

Aggregate data on visitors' home servers may be used for internal purposes but will not be provided to third parties such as marketing firms. Individually identifying information, such as names, postal and email addresses, phone numbers, and other personal information which visitors voluntarily provide to SoftArea may be added to SoftArea databases and used for future calls and mailings regarding service updates, new products and services, and upcoming events.

SoftArea won't transfer personal data of the European Economic Area residents out of the European Economic Area without reasonably ensuring that your rights and freedoms as a data subject are protected and that you are informed of such transfer. We do not sell or pass your personal data to a third party for the purposes of direct marketing.

We keep customers contact information strictly confidential and use it only to send important information to our customers.

Storing of Personal Data.

SoftArea stores personal data collected by site, within the information technology systems, owned and operated by SoftArea, and in the cloud systems. Once we receive your information, we will use all reasonable procedures and security measures to avoid unauthorised access, loss, disclosure or amendment of the received data.

Security Measures.

SoftArea has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control.

Right to Contact Users.

SoftArea reserves the right to contact service visitors regarding sales and other informational requests made through its web service.
